Introduction

“And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.” (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

A recent survey found that 72% of adult evangelical Christians came to their beliefs before they reached the age of 18. And 51% attribute parents as the most important or significant influence in their becoming Christians. Only 3% of evangelical Christians count Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, and other church ministries as an important influence in their spiritual journey.<sup>1</sup> Indeed, God has uniquely called and equipped parents to this important task. It is the most important mission in the world. It is God’s preassigned means to the conversion of children, the perpetuation of the faith, and the ongoing development of the Christian church generation by generation. The Generations ministry is dedicated to providing parents with resources for home-based discipleship.

Taking note of what God commands in Deuteronomy 6. Bible memory must be just as important for parents as for their children. First, the words are to be internalized in our own hearts before we teach them to our children. Thus, we would recommend a family-integrated Bible memory program. Bible memory is a very basic element to family discipleship. With each verse, you can use these steps to memorize:

1. Ask the question in the catechism.
2. Then, read the answer clearly out loud.
3. Each family member then recites the verse, with the parent correcting any error along the way.
4. Then, the entire family recites the verse together.

The Uniqueness of this Systematic Approach

Too often, Bible memory and instruction in the Bible lacks a comprehensiveness. Children get snippets of truth, a few encouraging “meme-like” Bible verses, but they don’t quite get the full picture of God’s truth even at a simple level. This tool is meant to convey a systematic, comprehensive understanding of Scripture in 67 carefully selected verses.

We have also designed this tool in a catechism-format. Biblical instruction of children often is presented in a catechetical format, as in Exodus 12:26. But also, throughout Christian history, teaching tools known as catechisms have been used to train children and young disciples in the basics of Christian faith and life. During the Reformation period, numerous valuable catechisms were written including the Heidelberg Catechism and the Westminster Shorter Catechism. These classic catechisms provide a comprehensive introduction to the Christian faith with simplicity and clarity. This catechism is not intended to replace these time-tested standards.

This catechism is unique in its design. It uses only the words of Scripture to answer each question. We believe that Scripture is the exemplary foundation for our children to learn, memorize, and understand basic Christian truths. May the Lord use this discipleship tool to root and ground your children in the faith!

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked,
nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
but his delight is in the law of the Lord,
and on his law he meditates day and night.
He is like a tree
planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither.
In all that he does, he prospers. (Psalm 1:1-3)

Question 1
